

POLICY AND PROCEDURE

Grievances, Complaints and Appeals

POLICY

Purpose and Scope

The Grievances, Complaints and Appeals Policy and Procedure outlines J2S Training Solutions' approach to managing dissatisfaction or concern of our stakeholders, so that any issue(s) can be dealt with promptly and effectively. This policy and procedure supports natural justice, procedural fairness and is designed to bring about reconciliation.

This policy and procedure applies to all Students, prospective Students, clients, referral agents, staff and other stakeholders of J2S Training Solutions. This policy and procedure is relevant to both academic and non-academic complaints and grievances.

This policy and procedure supports compliance with the Standards for NVR Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2025, Standard 2.7 and 2.8 and the National Vocational Education and Training Regulator Act 2011.

Policy

1. Complaints and appeals systems

J2S Training Solutions is committed to an accessible, effective, timely, fair and equitable complaints and appeals system.

This will be achieved by:

- A culture that views complaints and appeals as an opportunity to improve the organisation and how it works.
- A complaints and appeals handling system that is client focused and helps J2S Training Solutions to improve practices and prevent reoccurrence.
- Ensuring a complaint or appeal is resolved promptly, objectively, confidentially and with sensitivity.
- Ensuring the views of each party are respected and that each party is not discriminated against nor victimised.
- Ensuring there is a consistent response to complaints and appeals.
- Ensuring the Complaints and Appeals process is fair and available to all students and clients, including external avenues for further actions where required
- Ensuring all staff are aware of, and trained on this Policy, process and their responsibility

The following timeframes will be met:

- Attempts to resolve any complaints, concerns and appeals fairly and equitably within ten (10) working days from receipt of a notice of complaint/appeal.
- Where more than 60 calendar days are required to process and finalise the complaint/appeal, the complainant or appellant is notified of the reason why more than 60 calendar days are required.

Record keeping will be maintained:

- All formal complaints and appeals, and their outcomes will be recorded in the Complaints and Register.
- All informal complaints and their outcomes will be recorded on the Complaints Register.

POLICY AND PROCEDURE

Grievances, Complaints and Appeals

- A written record of all complaints and appeals handled under this Policy and Procedure and their outcomes shall be maintained for a period of five (5) years to allow all parties appropriate access to these records.
- The register is reviewed by management and used for improvement and learning.
- All records relating to complaints and appeals will be treated as confidential and will be covered by the J2S Training Solutions Privacy Policy.

Enrolment status of student:

- The student will remain enrolled throughout the complaint investigation process.
- Where there is a threat to the safety or well-being of the student, staff or other stakeholders the student's enrolment may be suspended. This will be determined by the CEO.
- A student may be suspended from attending class while the complaint is being investigated. This is at the discretion of the CEO.

2. Resolving issues before they become a complaint

J2S Training Solutions will provide support to the student to assist in resolving issues before they become complaints.

- Complaints and grievances are to be resolved, preferably informally and directly between the involved parties. Student support is available to assist students to resolve issues.
- Any complaint about the conduct of a staff member should be raised directly with the relevant line manager, CFO or CEO or via email ceo@stridelearning.com.au
- Any issues or complaints resolved informally should be recorded.

3. Lodging a complaint

Where an issue is unable to be resolved informally, a formal complaint can be submitted and will be investigated according to the procedure.

4. Appealing a complaint outcome decision

Where a Complainant is dissatisfied with the outcome, they may appeal the decision.

All appeals must be made in writing.

5. Assessment Outcome Appeal

Students are entitled to appeal an assessment outcome within 21 days.

Where an independent assessment is undertaken all parties will be bound by the independent assessor's decision.

6. External Dispute Resolution

Where a complaint or appeal is unable to be resolved internally to the satisfaction of all parties, it may be appropriate for an independent party to mediate. J2S Training Solutions will offer to arrange this mediation, at cost recovery charge to the complainant.

POLICY AND PROCEDURE

Grievances, Complaints and Appeals

7. Non-limitation of policy

This policy and related procedure do not replace or modify those or any other responsibilities which may arise under other policies or under statute or any other law. Nothing in this policy and related procedure limits the rights of individuals to take action under the Australia's Consumer Protection laws. Also, this policy does not circumscribe an individual's rights to pursue other legal remedies.
